| Manufacturer            | Sharp Microelectronics                                |
| Description             | GSIC FOR LQ036Q1DA01 TFT DISPLAY                      |
| Category                | Integrated Circuits (ICs) > Linear - Video Processing |
| Part Status             | 2673 pcs Stock                                        |
| Type                    | Gamma Correction Reference                            |
| Supplier Device Package | 20-HQFN (4x4)                                         |
| Series                  | -                                                     |
| Packaging               | Tape & Reel (TR)                                      |
| Package / Case          | 20-QFN                                                |
| Mounting Type           | Surface Mount                                         |
| Applications            | TFT-LCD Monitors                                      |
